"The Dependable Store" is eleven years old this week—and we are holding a rousing sale of seasonable merchandise in all departments—as a fitting celebration of the wonderful success that has come to us in this limited time.

Great throngs of visitors crowd every aisle at the present writing—and every indication points to this being the busiest and biggest day in the store's history. Yesterday's Post and Times gave full details of the extraordinary bargains offered as "Souvenirs" of the occasion.

In the period of eleven years we have accomplished what other stores have striven a quarter of a century to gain. By dint of persistent, never-faltering effort, we have won the confidence and patronage of all economically inclined Washington.

We feel that we've a right to your congratulations. Anniversary "Souvenir" Specials continued tomorrow and Wednesday—with equally as attractive values to take the place of those exhausted by the immense demand.
